OFFICE OF THE PROGRESS
ALBERT MAGNIN,
EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Darby, Pa., May 13th 1897

My Dear Judge

Accept my most earnest congratulations. May that rest which comes from change of scene and new activities prove of lasting benefit to your bodily aches and may the per diems be such as to alleviate other ills. I am truly, truly glad to know of your appointment; even though, to my mind, it be a meagre and tardy recognition of your years of labor for the common weal.

Truly Yours
Albert Magnin
