Dear Mrs Tompkins.

If Wednesday the nineteenth suits you, I will be happy to see you and your one or two friends. and would suggest ten thirty as the hour for the examination - I will call aside time for three, but if there are to be but two or if you can to come instead them please telegraph Tuesday evening that the time may be changed if necessary. I write also to send my congratulations to Judge on the appointment of which I read today. Please convey my personal regards.

Sincerely
Yours.
