EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON.

May 24, 1897.

My Dear Sir:

The President directs me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st instant recommending Mr. James T. Larmonth for appointment as Postmaster at Jamestown, N.Y., and to say that it has been referred to the Postmaster General for consideration.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "John A. McKim", written in a cursive style. The signature is underlined.

Secretary to the President.

Hon. Albion W. Tourgée,

Mayville, N. Y.
