Dear Sir. In reply to yours of 26. ult. would state that the Lobar Line, will have the Chateau Yquem sailing 3rd July for Marseilles. The rate of passage would be £6.6.- each. It is hardly possible that this date of sailing may be a day or two later, as these freight steamers cannot guarantee an exact date of departure. This steamer will have comfortable accommodations, but not luxurious, and the table will be French cooking, - no stewards is carried

If you would like us to secure accommodations for you on this ship, - we should be pleased to do so.

Yours very truly
