

The National Tribune,
The Favorite Fireside Weekly of the Nation,

Washington, D. C.,

June 10, 1897.

Hon. Albion W. Tourger:
Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Sir: I have your note of yesterday. I fear you did not take the hint when I wrote "it is enough times for publishers."

We would certainly like to have your MS.
but, — I may remind you of the Greek merchant who bought statues
by the ton, — it seems to such a little one for the money. Not

wishing to bear the library Market I will not make an offer for it formally, but if you would like a
check for fifty dollars send it
on & we will forward the check at once in return.

I trust your trip
will be in every way pleasant &
that you will come back with your library alive well filled.

Very truly yours

Byron Andrews.