CLARK BROTHERS,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

DRUGGISTS AND BOOKSELLERS,

JAMESTOWN, N. Y.

June 16th 1897

Mr. A. W. Longie,

Dear Madam

We have had under advisement your proposition respecting "Buttons Bonds" which is certainly very liberal and no doubt a sacrifice. It is doubtful if we can sell in this market a large number in a long while, the demand not being active of late — We have decided that we will take the Copies ordered sent by Express in our last — and should you desire on acct. of your going abroad to consign us what you have left of them at the time, to dispose of for you at net price (50 cts per copy) we will receive them and do what we can do remitting when and as you shall direct — We would not presume to offer you less than the price 35 cts per copy stated by you for the lot, but will say without expecting assent that we will be willing to send you cash for those you may have remaining unsold before your leaving — twenty five cents per copy — Trusting you may dispose of the books in the most satisfactory way and at the best possible figure We are very truly yours
