I owe very great gratitude to many for their very kind attentions to me during my visit. I shall cherish the memory of it as long as I live. I shall always look back upon the days I spent with you as among the happiest of my life. I shall never forget the kindness I received from you all. I shall always remember you with affection and gratitude. I shall always remember you with affection and gratitude. I shall always remember you with affection and gratitude.

As to your political movements, I do not know what to say. I think that if McKinley is not "pitched" in vehemently against you, by some of the politicians, you will receive an appointment. The day I wrote you, I saw in the morning Paper that a Committee, had waited Upon the Bradford Press, At the time I talked with McKinley, I was hopeful, but latterly as I see how matters are coming on. My faith in your success, without the leaders helping you, is getting weak. Yet it may come out better than I predict. I have not spoken to McK — by seeing my talks with him in your case. Will my dear friend, hoping for the best, and with best wishes to you and yours. I am
