"A letter from a sister of Mrs McKay of Mayville, who resides at Bordeaux, France, relates a pleasant reception of recent date, given by Mrs A. W. Tourgee, formerly of Mayville. She called it a "baby party". From 3 to 5 the small guests held full sway and it was a "delightful" occasion in all respects. Mrs McKay's sister's child was one of the little guests."

Albion wanted the clip. — So I copy it for you. — I sink it's a "delightful" tea!
