CONSULATE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Bordeaux, March 2, 1900.

Dear Miss Oldm[redacted]

I have your letter of yesterday.

I think we have everything now in good train, but perhaps the wedding may be delayed a little.

I enclose a blank application for a passport or rather two of them as they must be signed in duplicate. Please sign with your full name not initials--and return to me.

I will send and get a certificate of your parent's marriage.

I send you a copy of the letter which went in the last steamer mail to Mr Adelbert Moot of the firm of lawyers of "Sprague, Moot & Sprague," of Buffalo, a warm friend of mine, as I thought Mr Peabody might have sailed before a letter could reach him. If he has not, Mr Moot will confer with him and have all your matters made straight. If he has, they will still be brought to the correct end by Mr Moot.

I send also an analysis of your dossier and Mr Peabody's, noting the defects in each. You will find that the French official of all classes, rarely designates obstacles until he runs against them. Apparently they think that it is enough to designate one at a time. And the practise is not without reason though it seems absurd to our American ideas of thoroughness.

I will send a paper either to your father or to the Prothonotary of Chester County, Pa, in regard to your birth-certificate as soon as I hear from you in regard to my last letter. Do not have any trouble. A few days delay will do no harm--especially as one hopes to be married only once in a life-time.

Very sincerely yours,

Albert D. Tougee

U.S. Consul at Bordeaux.

Dear Sir

Received your letter this morning Inclosed you will find, signed, the papers you sent me for a passport & after writing to-day to the Mayor at Castel D'Or asking him for the marriage certificate of my parents, Will send it to you as soon as it will be in my possession.
I do not know of anyone living in West Lake who could take affidavit as to my birth. The "Juge de Paix" at Latte told one of my uncles that he would it would be very easy to make an acte de naissance he two witnesses, but for M. Bailey's that is to be done? I count upon

Mon. Monsieur le Consul, I have a few papers en règle & will be very thankful if you will kindly arrange that I can in the simplest way possible.
I suppose your papers must be translated in French but you have it done and what will it cost?
Will everything be all right and my "dossier" correct, and can the Mayor accept and make our publications of marriage without hesitation?
The principal "pièces" are our birth certificates.
I am much obliged to you for sending me the letter you wrote to the Mayor, I hope he can arrange things satisfactorily with Mr. Peabody & return the copy as you are taking me to do.
Thanking you for your kindness
Mr. le Consul I remain Yours truly Louis
