FORDS, HOWARD, & HULBERT,
PUBLISHERS,
No. 47 East 10th St., New York.

March 1. 1904

My dear Judge:

We have your statement &c.

On going over our business for the past two years we find it desirable to lop off our trade line if we can find a customer for it since the installment business uses up our capital & we are not organized to keep both lines active.

Before making any more with your books we desire to confer with You. As You may wish to have complete control of your books we will give You the cash of the plates, as follows:

Jigs	542.08	Eastman	526.52
Tools &c.	564.25	Black Joe	400.
do large	938.44	The Man	138.88
Bricks	785.93	Sunset Sea	60.
Hat Plow	668.38		1125.40
Roy Gent	973.22
John Cox	361.26
	4713.56

1/2 joint ownership = 2356.78

Our cash = 3482.18

Would you like to own the Plant at one fourth the cost of the ten books published by us $855.54 & $60. for "Sunset Sea"?

We owe you an apology for not sending statement before, but negotiation for the Merrill & Baker plates was the finish cause, & then the matter drifted & was lost sight of.

It has been a winter of much illness - small pox, Grippe et cetera, but we are all alive & in a tolerable condition.

Hoping you and yours are happy and prosperous I am Sincerely Yours

Geo. S. Hulbert
