Now as to the plates: we find that the "Man" has not been melted, & we will put that with the others. In order to arrive at a settlement more promptly we have a proposition to make. There were 179 Royalties on hands, and to reduce that slow-selling stock we are putting 100 into Bangs' trade sale Feb. 3. All the other bound books we have arranged for Baker & Taylor Co., jobbers to take in sale, at 50% discount Regular:

Of Course no one knows how long it will take for them to sell these books, ~~just supplying Orders as they come, with no pushing;~~ but if you will make the final settlement now, as to the plates, we will risk that delay and credit them all up as Sold, instead of on Sale. The matter would then stand thus:-

Amount for plates - - - -	$375.00
Less Copyright - due Aug.t. $96
" Sept. 7.92
Books on Sale as per Inv. 138.31	154.29

With a draft for this, and the assignments to be executed, the most of our mutual accounts can be Squared now.

Besides the bound books, there are these Sheets:-

650 Foal .1334 — 7 on half & cuts.			43.35
300 Bricks .1473		"	22.10

These we will arrange to have used as needed, and of course make due returns.

The small return on Foal & Bricks is of course disappointing; but you see at least that we did what we could, and take our share of the slim outcome, having furnished all the outgo.

Faithfully Yours. Edwd. Howard Bullard
