My Dear Mrs Tourgee

In this hour of your deep affliction I cannot hope that words from any source can assuage the grief that comes at parting from your life companion and partner, yet such was my great love for Judge Tourgee that I cannot refrain at this moment of saying to wife and daughter whom he loved so well that I keenly feel for them in their great loss.

Very sincerely Yours

Albert Magnin

If I may serve you in any way over here will you advise me.
