Sunday Morning
May 22nd 60—

Dear Eugene

We arrived safe last night in the evening - we had rained that the day might be cloudy & so we to us for some time but that we might come home he had visited from his school & mine & to visit again My dear Eugene Love and kiss Ellen for me My dear Ellen we to you direction - that God consent - Time sorrowing heart - Time like [illegible] has been beautiful and all the longest - Sun will not be long until - I am sure I think this morning of the sun of and a Saint in the Judge to be free from the fetters of an earthly body - I am pondering whether sin will come soon commencing if sin should come I doubt might sin will fulfill in June the divine time in July could come to pass - We did not know when he went to the office this morning - It will be a great downpour to-day - We are glad for it - still there is [illegible] - Love to Lyle and Ann and glad they have their Lyle was sure and Ann's knight I can write nothing to the papers - I have written Grandpa Brink

Love
