June 14, 1905.

Mrs. Albion W. Tourgée,
c/o American Consulate,
Bordeaux, France.

Madam:-

Replying to your letter of the 1st instant, I have to say, that upon arrival of the Wine in question it will be passed free of duty under the provisions of Paragraph 636, N.T., as the personal effects of a citizen of the United States who has died abroad.

If this letter is presented at the Custom House at the time of entering the effects in question, it will facilitate the matter.

Respectfully yours,

N. M. Prouty
Collector.
