Dear Mrs. Hall:

I return the article on Judge Tourgee from the Raleigh News Observer. I agree with you that it is one of the very best called out by the death of Judge Tourgee. I do not know the writer, but evidently he knew the judge and followed his career with interest and sympathy. All that he says as to the feeling of North Carolinians toward the Judge is borne out by what Charles Busbee, a prominent lawyer of Raleigh said to me several years ago. Mr. Busbee spoke in the same enthusiastic terms of the civil code and of Judge Tourgee's fairness on the bench. Mr. Busbee afterwards married a daughter of Governor Fowle, who is spoken of in Mr. Joyner's article. I am glad to have had the privilege of reading the article and I hope you will express my thanks to Mrs. Tourgee.

Sincerely,

Wm. Busbey
