Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee,
c/o American Consulate-General,
Paris, France.

Dear Madam,

I beg to acknowledge your favor of the 30th ult., making complaint of certain charges made by Mr. Frigout, the Deputy Consul-General, who attended on you officially at the Thackeray Hotel, London, on Friday last.

You will find enclosed Mr. Frigout's report to me on the subject.

Mr. Frigout seems to have gone out of his way to serve you, and certainly it was the wish of the office that every courtesy should be shown in your case.

I regret that the half fee charged by Mr. Frigout should meet with objection on your part, and therefore enclose $5.00 bill and stamps, equivalent of the amount.

It is unfortunate that there should have been any necessity for correspondence in this matter.

Yours faithfully,

Robert J. Wynne
Consul-General.
