DearMadam:-

Your postal card of yesterday is at hand, and at your request we telegraphed you that there is really no chance for that your goods will reach Washington by Thursday next. We wrote you yesterday, requesting you to send us an affidavit for Custom House purposes, and only on receipt of this document can we go ahead with the Custom House formalities. We do not think you can count upon that the goods will reach Washington until at least some time next week.

We are, dear Madam,

Yours very respectfully,

FUNCH, EDYE & CO.,

We can do nothing before you return the affidavit.
