Monday

My dear Mrs. Fourgeaud,

I have been waiting to be able to send you the Metropolitan number for September before thanking you for the papers you have forwarded to me, but two of the newsdealers have already received me, and I expect, at last, to get this so much desired magazine, to-morrow; in which case, I shall forward it at once.

Let me tell you how much thankful I am to you for the clippings that have read about the Judge's final tribute. They have given me some new views on the great man who was Albion W. Tourgee; - I shall keep them with the few souvenirs I have kept of Him.

I hope that you and Miss Tourgee are quite well and I wish you all the possible happiness for your first Christmas at home.

With my compliments,
I beg to remain,
very respectfully yours,
Edmund W. Peluso.
