Dear Mrs. Tourgée:

Your favor of the 15th inst with enclosure from Street & Smith is before me.

If you want the plates of "Pactolus Prime", as I understand you do, I would order them delivered to Robert Drummond 444 Pearl St. to be stored in his "Bridge Vault" with Tourgée Plates.

Mark title on each box - "Pactolus Prime" for identification.

If you prefer to have the royalty of $100.00 due on contract with Street & Smith you might tell them so, but if you have to bring damage suit for nonfulfillment it might cost Gen. $250. to get satisfaction.

You are getting the plates for nothing & Street & Smith have stored them free since their purchase, so I do not see how you could do better than to take them & make an arrangement for an English edition.

My infirm toe requires a wide ventilated shoe, but I am able to come to the office quite regularly. Mrs. H. & Hazel are each better & am glad to report.

With kindest regards to all members of your household, I am,

Very truly
