9718

Name of Street Changed to Euclid

Washington, D. C.

1347 ~~Roanoke~~ Street.

Mrs Albert Jurgen

Herm Theo Jurgen

Since your address in the Book ad "at home" & you send it & I attend & then thank you are the widow of Judge Jurgen, titled in this & other lands, pr his titles, especially
"the Poet Prince"
If I am correct, I beg to greet you, & recall the acquaintance Made in Denver, several years ago, when Hon. Lawrence Gardner was mayor Gov. Evans town, was the "Mecca" for all church pilgrims in that day - here a elegant church was supplanted Lawrence St, covered into a Auditorium & this old stand by friends have "pulled thru" to triumphs. Since that time we have joined the ranks of Quaker Sam Shepherdmen - & this little pile are our daughters - women - whom we love & cherish, will scarcely be remembered by you, though we shared you & on this occasion, Judge Lowe took graciously gave me a little helpful chat for my work in the "Fortnightly Club" - That kindness I remember most gratefully this evening you have all a cordial to our town, these incidents mentioned came to mind, & I determined to identify myself & you

Ben Reed through to Ch Mrs
Reed if you are the future Fancy in my mind to be Mrs Dr. Reed. Thursday may be you or one of your
"a Thousand" days -
Sincerely,
Mrs Albert R. Dyer
1347 Euclid Ave -

Thursday -
Jan 18th

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY NY HISTORICAL SOCIETY 2013