Mrs. A. W. Tourgee,

Washington, D. C.

My dear Mrs. Tourgee:

Mr. Love, a teacher in this school, spoke to me some time ago about having you visit the school and I have been waiting for a good opportunity to act upon his suggestion, as personally I very much desire to have you with us while you are in the city. Tomorrow we celebrate in the colored schools the life and times of Frederick Douglass between the hours of 1 and 2 p. m. We are hoping to have with us Mr. Oswald Garrison Villard of the New York Evening Post and I should be very glad to have you present.

You will I hope excuse the short notice which is due to the fact of my being unable to make arrangements earlier. I shall be very glad indeed to have you and any friends you may wish to accompany you present.

Very sincerely yours,

A. J. Cooper.

P.S. The school is on N between 1st & Newjersey Ave. It may be reached by taking the Mt. Pleasant cars, transferring at 9 St. to the "Laurel" "Riverdale" or Berwyn cars going East. These pass the door.
