Honorable D.I. Murphy,

U.S. Consul, Bordeaux, France.

Dear Sir:

Before your arrival at Bordeaux in July last, I left with Mr Fricot, and saw him put it in the safe, a letter to Ass. Secretary of State Pierce, which he was to mail to him for me.

Mr Pierce tells me that he has never received this letter, and the inference is that it was never mailed. If you would kindly look in the safe and see if it is there I would be much obliged. If you do not find it, it would oblige me much should you look in the Letter book of "Unofficial Correspondence" of March or April,--I think April is the month--1904, and have made and mail for me a copy of a statement regarding the purchase of some wine by Mr Pierce in Bordeaux, 1903. In settling up the bill, my husband advanced a small sum as the draft sent was not sufficient and it is this amount I wish to ascertain, as I do not remember exactly what it was.

If you will have this matter attended to as soon as you can, I shall consider it a favor, and be exceedingly obliged.

I am Sir,

Very truly yours,

E.K.J.
