

9960

---

George S. Hulbert, Publisher, New York
Seventy Eight Fifth Avenue

---

February 21st, 1906.

Mrs. A. W. Tourgee,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

I have received an account for the stock placed on consignment at half off and sold during 1905, and make report as per statement enclosed, with our check for $54.08 to cover balance.

I presume you did not make a costly present to Alice in view of these sales. Unlike her father, she is not "Alone in Cuba," as Mr. Dooly put it.

How are you and the daughter enjoying the capital city?

With best wishes, and with kindest regards to our mutual friend, Mrs. Warner, I am

Very truly yours,

Geo. S. Hulbert
for J. J. H. H.