

2764
February 23rd, 1906.

The Baker & Taylor Co.,
Gentlemen:-

We have your favor of the 21st by Mr. Hood, and would say in reply that we have no sheets of "Bricks without Straw". I think Mrs. Tourgee is negotiating with a London publisher for an English edition of his works. Would you favorably entertain a proposition to print 1,000 "Bricks without Straw", paying her a royalty of 10% and control the American market?

Yours truly,

Geo. S. Fulbert