Dear Mr. Turgie:

8/26/06

Your favor of the 24th is before me and I am glad to hear that both of your injuries are in good hands - the Insurance Policy and the Penicillin bill.

In the Telephone book the address you ask for is put down at 360 Adelphi Street, Brooklyn.

This is a case in which you may make better progress to go slow and keep in good humor. That you have been made almost sick by irritating incidents of all sorts that you are really paying dear for what you are trying to secure.

The osteopath told my daughter that every time she loses her temper she is paying him another fee, since her recovery is thereby retarded.

I have never read "the Colored man," nor witnessed the drama.
A great many are finding fault with it.

The best thing I have read in many a day is "The Joys of Being a Negro" in the February Atlantic.
The humor is rare & fine.

This is a method of treating the subject that wins and remains unanswerable.

-Get the humor there and you will accomplish more than in a savage attack on Dixon. (Is every)

(Yours sincerely
