Dear Madame:

In a letter from my Mr Howard, - of the 22nd ult, I was informed that he had left the matter of preparing and shipping my chair with you.

Do you any trouble in preparing and shipping it, I have this day written to the Am. Ex. Co. asking them to call at 360 Adelphi St. Brooklyn. - & for the chair and forward ~~my~~ it to them. ~~Please advise~~ A copy of this letter goes in mine to them, so there can be no mistake made. - No matter in what state of preparedness this chair may be, please deliver it to my messenger.

I am, Madame.

March 3rd. 1906 Very truly yours

E K V.
