Look out for the Cars!!

–HERE SHE COMES!!"

The Cars at Dexterville!!

LIGHT IN THE EAST!!

Hip, Hoorah! The cars are in sight. As we go to press to-day (Thursday) we are within hearing of the first locomotive that ever whistled in Southern Chautauqua, and a few moments' walk would show us the cars—a mile or two East of the place. Yesterday the track-layers were in sight all day; the inspiring whistle broke faintly on the listening ear early in the present week and the scout has been since gaining plainer by degrees and beautifully louder. To-night the locomotive will be near Dexterville, and by Saturday night at the foot of Main Street. Think of that! Oh, ye stage-pounded travelers, and sore old horses; ye benighted back-woodsmen and impatient merchants—the iron horse just ready to rush into the heart of Jamestown—out-o'-date-way back-woods Jamestown—where nothing larger than a cicero wagon or faster than an old-fashioned, shackled coach was ever before seen! Who does not feel as if he "had the power," and could shout "hooray," and "glory," and rain his oldest hat, at the event? Some one strike up the hymn "Ain't I glad to get out of the wilderness."

P. S.—4 o'clock, P. M.—We have just come from the scene of operations, a quarter of a mile below Dexterville where our hundred men are laying track. Such a rush and dis of work! work! we do not expect
