Obituary.

Caleb Roberts departed this life at his late home Monday morning, May 31st. He was born in Binghamton, Broome co., N. Y., in 1811, and died in Nashville, N. Y., at the advanced age of 86. Was twice married. In 1836 was married to Miss Hannah Rust, of which union was born four children. Only one survives him, Mrs. Hannah Sisson of Fredonia. In 1846 was again married to Miss Phebe Ann Rust, sister of first wife, who survives him. To them were born five children: two are still living, Stephen Roberts of Buffalo, Miss Carrie Roberts of Nashville. He leaves 8 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

He was converted and united with the Baptist church when 24 years of age. His whole life showed it was a genuine work. Came to Forestville in 1882, united there with the church and from that place he moved to Nashville and has been a resident of this place 34 years, and was one of the pillars of the Baptist church, filling with great acceptability the office of Deacon most of the time.

It was one of those overwhelming sorrows which sometimes comes like an electric current and went through hearts in our village and community on Monday morning of last week, when the sad message was passed from one to another that Deacon Roberts was found dead in his bed. And the word "dead" came back upon the heart with a fresh vibration of pain and sorrow. None were prepared for the announcement because we felt he could not be spared. How much he was missed by young and old.

He died as he lived, at peace with God and all the world. He was blessed with a cheerful heart and a confiding faith that spread sunshine in every circle he entered. His translation was so sudden that he left no word for his loved ones, but his life is a monument, polished by grace. Diligent in labor, rich in experience, patient in suffering his course is finished, and he has gone to his reward like a sheaf of wheat fully ripe, entering into that rest prepared for those that love him.

The funeral services were held in the Baptist church and largely attended Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Hazelton, pastor of the Baptist church preached an excellent sermon from the text, "So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." Appropriate music was furnished by Nevins choir. The casket was covered with beautiful flowers presented as tokens of love and esteem. F. D. Ellis, undertaker. Burial in Nashville cemetery.

Obituary.

The death of Miss Blanche Geer, daughter of Delos Geer, which occurred on Oct. 15, was very sad and unexpected to most of her friends, although it was known her health was fast failing for the last month. Having been treated at home by the best physicians without success, she went to Meadville Oct. 5 to be treated by Dr. Hammaker; but the case was one of those stubborn cases of kidney trouble without pain or suffering.

Blanche Geer was 22 years old. She was left without father or mother when quite young. Was much loved for her sweet, mild disposition in her circle of school friends, also as a teacher. She was a graduate of the state normal school at Edinboro, Pa., class of '93. A member of the Congregational church at Guy's Mills, where the funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, the 17th, where by her request she was laid to rest.

Mrs. Phebe Roberts died at her late home in Nashville Friday, Oct. 8, with pneumonia, at the advanced age of 84. She was born in Binghamton, N. Y., in 1813. Was married to Caleb Roberts and came to Fredonia in 1835. Was converted at 22 years of age and united with the Baptist church at Fredonia of which she was a member at her death. She leaves two children, Stephen Roberts of Buffalo and Carrie of this place; seven grandchildren, four great-grandchildren. One brother survives her, Wm. Rust, of East Paw Paw, Ill.

Mrs. Roberts was a woman much devoted to her family and her home was the best place to her on the earth. Her sickness was short and she passed at once from the activities of life into the eternal world. She will be much missed and those who shared in the hospitality of her home could but feel the warmth of her welcome.

Her son and granddaughter from Buffalo were here at her death and burial, but none will miss her as her daughter, who is left alone and who has cared for her mother these many years.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church Sunday at 2:30 P. m., conducted by Rev. Hazleton of Forestville. He talked from these words, "We all do fade as a leaf." Appropriate music was furnished by the Nevins choir. A. N. Babock, E. S. Robinson, T. M. Brown, A. E. Ball, Ira Brownell, J. M. McIntyre acted as bearers. F. D. Ellis of Forestville, undertaker. Many beautiful tributes of flowers were presented as tokens of love and esteem.

Mrs. A. B.

Card of Thanks.

To the friends and neighbors who have been so kind during the illness and death of my dear mother, I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks. Carrie.
